How to get to The Priory Rooms

By train

The Priory Rooms is within walking distance of Birmingham's three city centre stations. Trams depart from outside New Street station, which stop on Bull Street outside the entrance to The Priory Rooms.

■ Walking from New Street station (approx. 10 minutes)

Take the New Street / Metro exit, bearing right as you go up a slight slope. On Stephenson Street turn right then cross at the pedestrian crossing. Follow the tram lines up hill, passing over New Street, continuing onto Corporation Street. Turn left onto Bull Street. The Priory Rooms driveway is on the right-hand side, next to the Peace Hub, opposite the tram stop.

■ Walking from Snow Hill station (approx. 2 minutes)

Leave via the main exit, cross the road and walk through the archway next to Tesco Express. On Bull Street, cross the road. The Priory Rooms driveway is next to the Peace Hub.

■ Walking from Moor Street station (approx. 7 minutes)

Turn right out of the station, then cross the main road and head up Carrs Lane, between M&S and Carrs Lane Church. Walk past the Travelodge until you face Boots. Turn right then follow the road around the corner to the left onto Bull Street. Walk up the hill, crossing Corporation Street. The Priory Rooms driveway is next to the Peace Hub.

By bike

■ Cycle stands are available – bikes are left at your own risk.

By car

There is limited parking for disabled users at The Priory Rooms. The Londonderry House NCP car park is on Dalton Street, B4 7LX.
